Art Unit: 3723

1. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

The recitations "drilling a polygonal recess" and "drilling a polygonal engaging hole" are not understood since polygonal recesses and polygonal holes cannot be "drilled". Drilling is performed by rotational cutting which forms a circular opening in the workpiece. Additionally, the purpose of the "positioning recess 21" is not understood in view of the specification and drawings.

2. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 2, line 1, "from" should be --for--.

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Walters or Kelly et al.

5. With respect to claim 2, In re Wilson, 424 F.2d 1382, 165 USPQ 494 (CCPA 1970) states that "if no reasonably definite meaning can be ascribed to certain claim language, the claim is indefinite, not obvious" and In re Steele, 305 F.2d 859, 134 USPQ

Art Unit: 3723

292 (CCPA 1962) states that "it is improper to rely on speculative assumptions regarding the meaning of a claim and then base a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103 on these assumptions".

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Debra S Meislin whose telephone number is 703 308-3671. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F, alt. Fridays off.
